

MOBILE PATROLS OVER CHRISTMAS

With your staff taking a well-earned seasonal break during the festive season, it's only natural to be concerned for the safety and security of your building. Since most companies shut down for at least a few days over Christmas, empty commercial premises are an easy target for thieves, vandals, and other trespassers.

Fortunately, with Marpol Security, there is a simple and cost-effective solution. We operate mobile patrols throughout the UK, looking after our clients' businesses round the clock.

WHAT IS A MOBILE PATROL UNIT?

Our mobile patrol units comprise one or more trained security officers with years of experience who drive around the local neighbourhood, keeping a watchful eye on our customers' buildings. They work in shifts, providing 24/7 coverage, so you can be sure your premises will be protected however long your staff are on Christmas shutdown.

THE BENEFITS OF A MOBILE PATROL UNIT

- Uniformed and experienced mobile supervisor attending in security branded vehicle (with dashcam).
- Wearing bodycam for evidence capture and visual deterrent.
- Performs a diligent on foot patrol of the perimeter, key external areas (including entrances) and if appropriate, internal communal areas.
- Keeping an eye out for anyone lingering around site and for signs of damage, theft and/or attempted intrusion.
- If any red flags are found, they escalate to our in house 24/7 control room. Immediate measures such as steel board up and guarding/ K9 units can re-secure the site in the event of an incident.
- These patrols are a strong visual deterrent to anyone watching the site.
- They are performed at randomised times, so the attendance time can't be guessed.
- Patrols reports can be provided to evidence attendance and provide client insight. Including GPS, date and time stamped photographs.
